HARRY RANKY, of the Lexington Roller Mills, tells us that he sold 33,000 pounds of flour Friday and Saturday last, most of which he sold to our merchants.

THE old year gave us a parting curve in a spell of wretched weather and the new year was ushered in with Borean blasts and driving snow. The mercury dropped to 4" Saturday night and yesterday was down to 20, chilling the marrow and freezing ears and nonce.

AS ADMINISTRATOR of Miss. Rachael Carpenter Dr. J. B. Owsley sold 6 and G. A. Lackey 5 shares of stock in the Farmers' National Bank, of Stanford at suction yesterday, J. J. Williams bought 2 shares at $148; Silas Anderson, 3 shares at $149 50; H. N. Ware, 3 at $150 25 and John D. Carpenter, 3 at $150 25.

It would be amusing, if it were not such a serious matter with the poor fellows who gitudinal oriental design, combined with have been led by designing men into losing their places, to read in the Louisville dailies how the brakemen who struck are holding out firm and are confident of gaining their points. The firmness and confidence alleged is worthy of a better cause than they have and the fact that the L. & N, has all the men it wants and is running all the trains it can, shows that their confidence is endly out of proportion to the

THOSE who disposed of their stock in the Saxton National Bank, of St. Joseph, Mo., led thereto by the passing of a dividend and the wretched statement presented by the bank, were a little premature.
